

MOBILIZING PERKINS TO ACTION SO ALL CAN THRIVE

United Way of Payne County ensures everyone, everywhere has the potential to thrive. In Payne County, 23,9% of residents live below the poverty line, 17% of residents lack access to nutritious food, and 46% of fourth graders score below basic reading levels. United Way partners with local nonprofits to address critical issues and improve the lives of individuals.

In Payne County, we are working to:

- Improve health and well-being for all.
- Help young people realize their full potential.
- Build financial stability and strength.
- Address urgent needs today for a better tomorrow.
