United Way of Payne County is working to ensure everyone has the potential to thrive. In Payne County, 51% of residents, including 21% living below the poverty line, struggle to afford basic necessities. Over 15,000 residents worry they won't have enough food, and only 27% of students achieve reading proficiency by fourth grade. United Way partners with local nonprofits to address critical issues and improve lives.

In Payne County, we are working to:

- Improve health and well-being for all.
- Help young people realize their full potential.
- Build financial stability and strength.
- Address urgent needs today for a better tomorrow.
